

Privacy Policy

Churchwebcast.com and its affiliate websites including colemanconnectionministry.com have created this privacy policy ("Policy") in order to demonstrate our commitment to customer privacy. Customer privacy on its web sites (the "Sites") is of great important to us.

Because we collect important information from our customers, we have established this Policy as a mean of communicating our information practices regarding collecting, using and sharing that information. We strictly abide by the information practices disclosed in this Policy for all information collected at our websites and other affiliate websites.

The Customers data will be stored and processed in whole or in part in the United States. If you access Sites outside the United States, your usage of that site constitutes consent to the transfer of this data out of the Customers country and to the United States.

If you have questions or concerns regarding this statement, please contact Customer Service at the number and emails listed on the Website.

Links

The Site contains links to other web sites. This Company is not responsible for the privacy practices of these other web sites. Customers should need check the policy statement of these others sites to understand their policies.

Other sites also have links to this Company to expose our system and services to their customers. This Company is not responsible for the privacy policies of other web sites. You need to read their privacy statements separately.

Cookies

When a customer comes to our Site, our server sends a temporary cookie to the customer's computer. Cookies are files that Web browsers store in the computer's memory and are used to maintain the session while the customer is on the Site. Permanent cookies, which are written to the customer's hard disk and can be used to identify the customer as a returning visitor, are not used on the Site. We never use cookies as a way of gathering personal information about the customer.

The Site uses only temporary cookies ("session cookies") as a security mechanism to authenticate you as a registered user and authorize that the customer has permission for each requested action. Session cookies help us make sure the customer is whom the customer say the customer is after the customer has logged in and are required to use this Company's application. Customers who disable their Web browser's ability to accept cookies will be able to browse this Company's site but will not be able to login and use this system and/or service. No personal information is stored in the cookie other than some random data used to identify the customer to the servers. All cookies are deleted from the customer's computer after closing the browser or turning off your computer.

Security

The Company's Site has security measures in place to protect the loss, misuse and alteration of the information under our control. We utilize Secure Socket Layer technology to protect the customer's information while in transit from their computer to/from our servers. This Company hosts the Site in a secure server environment that uses a firewall and other advanced technology to prevent access from unauthorized persons.

The Company's Site also requires each customer to have a unique username and a password that must be entered each time they log in. Private information including the customers' password is stored in encrypted format in the database. These safeguards help to protect the customers' personal information and prevent unauthorized access.

Anonymous Technical Information

The Server stores as part of its operational logging, the number of hits, IP source addresses, browser type and other anonymous, technical information that helps us to maintain the website and to provide the highest level of service for our users. Specific information of this type is not shared outside of this Company, except in aggregate, completely anonymous form.

Sale or Disclosure of Personal Data

We will not sell your personal information to any third party without the customers' explicit permission. We will not disclose the customer's personal information, unless compelled to do so by legal or regulatory agents. Except as described above or specially authorized by the customer, in the event of a legal or regulatory request to disclose their personal information, this Company will notify you ahead of time when permitted.

Information gathered on a page in a private label partner site or on a co-branded page, may become the property of the other company or of both this Company and the other company. In that instance, the use of such information by the other company may be subject to the privacy policy of that company and, in any event, This Company is not responsible for that company's use of your personal or demographic information.

If you apply for a position through a co-branded site, you may be asked to provide information on your age, gender or race. Some companies are required by law to gather this information from requestors for reporting and record keeping requirements. You should understand that if provided, this information will be used by companies only in accordance with applicable law and will not be used in making any credit decisions. All information provided will be kept separate from your expression of interest in any credit opportunity. Providing this information is strictly voluntary and you will not be subject to any adverse action or treatment if you choose not to provide this information.

Correcting & Updating Your Information

Your personal information can be updated any time by logging into your account and editing your registration information. Changes take affect immediately. For changes made to a loan or credit application, your original values are archived and remain available to lenders and clients so that they may view both the new and original values. Changes to your personal registration information are not archived.

Contacting the Web Site Administrator

Question regarding this Policy or the practices of this Site should be directed to This Company's Security Administrator by emailing such questions to magic59@enid.com